ORIGINAL ROOTS MUSIC FROM THE HEART OF KENTUCKY

SATURDAY
SEPTEMBER 8TH

NATHANIEL MISSION
1109 VERSAILLES RD.

OPEN HOUSE | 2PM
SILENT AUCTION
CONCERT | 3PM

Zoe Speaks, original roots music from the heart of Kentucky, is performing a benefit concert for Nathaniel Mission on Saturday, September 8th. Join us for an Open House starting at 2, a perfect opportunity to see and hear about what God is doing in and around The Mission. There will be a silent auction with a variety of items which include fantastic UK basketball seats. Concert will begin at 3pm. Zoe Speaks music was quoted on page 57 in the National United Methodist Women's 2018 Mission u study book: What About Our Money?

Zoe Speaks consists of Kentuckians Mitch Barrett, Carla Gover, and Owen Reynolds, (and for larger shows, fiddler/vocalist Zoey Barrett and multi-instrumentalist Arlo Barnette) who draw on their deep roots in the region to put their own spin on everything from traditional ballads to finely-crafted originals. A smooth, mellow instrumental mix lays the background for the close vocal harmonies that are a defining feature of their sound. A veritable songwriting powerhouse, their song contest wins include the Telluride Troubador Contest, Merlefest's Chris Austin Contest, Rocky Mountain Folks Fest, and Kerrville New Folk, among others. A staple on the Kentucky music scene for over a decade with three successful CDs under their belt, they are back together and set to release a new album this summer. They accompany themselves on guitar, claw hammer banjo, upright bass, and sometimes dulcimer and clogging feet.
